1. PART-TIME TEACHING OPPORTUNITIES OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS

The Undergraduate/Graduate Fellows program at Rutgers-Newark is currently accepting applications for part-time 5th grade teachers. The paid position begins in August, lasts a full year and requires only 5-7 hours p/week. As an Undergraduate Fellow you would assist graduate students in teaching local 5th graders about science. This position is open to all and requires NO prior teaching experience but applicants should have a background in science. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to have fun, make some money and have a positive impact on the city. If you would like more information or are interested in applying then please contact Dr. John Gunkel.

2. NEW COURSE OFFERING ON NONPROFIT AND PHILANTHROPIC LEADERSHIP

Rutgers Business School's Center for Nonprofit and Philanthropic Leadership would like to invite you to take their new fall course offering entitled, "Special Topics: Leadership Development for Nonprofit and Philanthropic Organizations: Empowering Leaders to Create a Civil Society". This graduate level course is a great choice for anyone interested in the non-profit sector, social sciences, leadership, management and the intersection of non-profit and private business enterprise. Students with majors in the humanities, arts and social sciences are particularly encouraged to register and would probably find the course very rewarding. Note: Honors College students may use this course (provided they complete it with a passing grade) to fulfill their Honors College Special Topics Requirement. The course number: 22:373:668:40 INDEX 35312. The class will meet Wednesdays, 6:00pm – 9:00pm. If you plan on taking this course then please contact Seth Mann so that we may notate your file.

3. JOIN THE MODEL UNITED NATIONS AT RUTGERS-NEWARK

The newly formed Model United Nations at Rutgers-Newark is looking for new members! The Model UN is worldwide authentic simulation of the U.N. General Assembly and other multilateral bodies that helps to further understanding of the United Nations, world issues and the promotion of peace through cooperation and diplomacy. As a member you would join over 200,000 other students from around the world who participate in this exciting program. Many different skills can be developed by participation in Model UN including teamwork, expository and persuasive writing, debating, negotiating, organizing, networking, reading, writing, cross-cultural awareness, world language skills, problem-solving, conflict resolution, research skills, and communication skills. The Model UN also creates the opportunity to meet new people, make new friends, and participate and (possibly) host national conferences. Students from all majors are encouraged to participate in this great opportunity. If you are interested then please contact Dana Bochna or Emily Skinner at your earliest convenience. They will be able to provide you with further information about the organization and about the planned kickoff meeting being held next week (time/place TBA).

5. ACT NOW TO REDUCE PROPOSED BUDGET CUTS

By now, many of you may have received or seen President McCormick's message about the state budget proposed by Governor Corzine, or you may have read about the proposal in the papers (see <http://www.rutgers.edu/FY2007Budget/> for those who haven't). The budget, as written, would seriously impact all areas of Rutgers operation, including the number and size of courses offered and the various academic and non-academic support services offered to students. It is important to emphasize, however, that this budget only represents the Governor's proposal to the legislature. Between now and June 30, legislators will be debating all aspects of the budget, and their constituents will be weighing in with their legislators in an effort to sway their vote one way or another. If you are concerned about the potential impact of the proposed cuts to Rutgers' funding, I strongly urge you to take action by contacting your elected officials (<http://capwiz.com/for/issues/alert/?alertid=8834051>).

6. CANCELLED CLASS ALERT SYSTEM

Starting this summer students will be notified of changes in the class schedule (time, location or cancellations) via special electronic announcements sent to your Rutgers email account. That means that you need to either check your Rutgers account on a regular basis or make sure you forward your Rutgers mail to the address you use the most. For more info on mail forwarding please visit the following URL: (<http://www.ncs.rutgers.edu/tools.html>). This initiative will assist students greatly as they will be able to make registration changes in a timely fashion. Please note that you will not receive news about class changes from any other source besides this electronic system.
