2. WINTER SESSION INFORMATION

Winter session registration begins on October 2nd. For a list of available classes please visit the on-line schedule of classes at <http://www.acs.rutgers.edu:8880/soc>. For all other information pertaining to winter session please visit their website at <http://winter.newark.rutgers.edu/>.

3. AMBASSADOR TO DISCUSS CAREERS IN FOREIGN SERVICE

Ambassador Mussomeli, the Cambodian Ambassador to the United States, will meet with students on the Rutgers-Newark campus to discuss career options in the Foreign Service. Any student with even a possible interest in finding employment in this field after graduation is strongly encouraged to join Ambassador Mussolmeli in the Baker Court Room at the Law School at 3:00 PM on October 9. The Ambassador also will be speaking in the Baker Court Room at 5:00 PM on "American Foreign Policy, Globalization, and International Law," and all interested students are invited to attend this talk as well.

4. 2006 HOMECOMING CELEBRATION

The entire Rutgers-Newark community is invited to "Celebrate the Spirit and Share the Pride," during the campus's 2006 Homecoming celebration beginning on Thursday, September 28 and concluding on Sunday, October 1. For more information, please visit <http://www.newark.rutgers.edu/homecoming/>.

5. "REACH OUT FOR HEALTH" ANNUAL HEALTH FAIR

Please join Rutgers-Newark for the "Reach Out for Health" Annual Health Fair. Combine fitness, fun at the Health Fair for students, staff and faculty on October 4th from 11:00 AM – 3:00 PM on the Norman Samuels Plaza. The day's events include outdoor demonstrations and exhibitions by various R-N offices and services, including the R-N Health Center and Pharmacy, Athletics and Recreation, Paul Robeson Campus Center, Housing and Residence Life, Public Safety, and UNITY Theater. In case of rain the event will be held in the Golden Dome Gymnasium. For more information call 973.353.5231.

6. ROBERT NOYCE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

There is a new, exciting scholarship opportunity offered through the Department of Urban Education for juniors and seniors, majoring in mathematics or science disciplines. Through a grant from the National Science Foundation, qualified students can receive up to $19,200 by committing to teach in Newark or other high-need school districts after they graduate and earn a New Jersey Teacher Certification. For further information or to apply please contact Joya H. Clark, at joyacla@andromeda.rutgers.edu.

7. SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT: VANGUARD GROUP

The Vanguard Group is offering scholarships to rising juniors (those students entering their senior year of college in the 2007-2008 school year) who are enrolled full-time, are members of a racial minority, and are a US citizen or permanent resident. The Vanguard® Scholarship Program provides merit-based scholarships of up to $10,000 to students pursuing studies in business, finance, economics, accounting, information technology, and liberal arts to be used during their senior year. For more information please contact Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu.

8. PUBLIC POLICY AND INT'L AFFAIRS (PPIA) AT PRINCETON SUMMER INSTITUTE

The PPIA Junior Summer Institute at Princeton University is now accepting applications for summer 2007. The seven-week program is structured to introduce or strengthen skills in economics, statistics, policy analysis, writing, public speaking, and organization/time management. These skills will help prepare students for graduate study and careers in public policy and international affairs. PPIA will supply participants with the tools of critical thinking, speaking, writing, and quantitative reasoning and with the skills and experiences necessary to create, analyze, implement, evaluate, and affect policy in a multicultural, multiethnic society. In order to apply students must be enrolled as college juniors and have at least one semester remaining following the summer 2007 semester. If you are interested in this opportunity, please contact Seth Mann ASAP. I look forward to hearing from you.

9. INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY IN EDUCATION

St. Philip's Academy, a private school located just minutes from campus, is seeking interns for its Marketing and Communications division. Interns will work closely with the Director and staff of St. Philip's to develop a marketing plan tailor-made for the distinct problems that educational institutions face. Possible projects may include work on advertising campaigns, writing informational literature such as press releases, following up on those releases, communicating with diverse constituencies (i.e. newspapers, television, local government official, development prospects, parents, students, etc...), writing of funding requests, organizing fund-raising events, grant-writing and various other responsibilities that are handled by the Department. Students will also work extensively with the school's students and its Dean of Students. Any student interested in gaining the essential skills needed for work after college, especially those interested in working in the education field, should apply for this position. For more information please e-mail Seth Mann.

10. MTV INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

A representative from MTV Networks has recently informed me that they have immediate internship openings in the following areas: Nickelodeon Press, Nickelodeon Movies On-Air Promos, VH1 Public Affairs, and Spike TV programming. These opportunities are available to all sophomores, juniors and seniors who are looking for a rich and rewarding experience at one of the world's most successful networks. Applicants should be available at least 2 days p/week. If you are interested in any of these opportunities then please send your resume and cover letter to me immediately. Your cover letter should indicate the semester you are applying for (fall 2006) and your area of interest (see above). If you have any questions then please contact Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu. Note, MTV Networks is also accepting applications for the spring 2007. For a complete list of what's available in the spring please visit <https://jobhuntweb.viacom.com/jobhunt/main/jobhome.asp>.

11. NEW LINE TELEVISION INTERNSHIP

New Line Television, a member of the New Line Cinema Company in NYC, has an immediate opening for a fall intern. Interns will assist in a fast paced, creative department where they will gain an overall understanding of television series development. Interns will also work closely with sales and marketing departments to assist in the preparation of materials for the sales/marketing of New Line movies and television programs. Applicants must be detail oriented, enthusiastic, efficient, and possess strong organizational skills. This is an excellent opportunity for students in any major! If you are interested in this opportunity then please email your resume and cover letter to Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu as soon as possible. Please include your days of availability in the body of the cover letter. If you need help with these documents then please write me as soon as you get this. This won't be available for long so act fast.

12. RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIP OPPORTUNITY IN EDUCATION

A Professor in the Department of Urban Education at Rutgers-Newark is seeking a Research Assistant to assist him with a book on Newark, NJ. The Research Assistant is expected to work independently on specific research topics as assigned by the Professor. Students will be encouraged to use clever and creative ways to obtain the information requested. Applicants must be reliable, flexible and have excellent research skills. Knowledge of the Newark environment is helpful but not necessary. If you are interested in this opportunity then please contact Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu. Note, students participating in this kind of work may be eligible to receive credit towards their Honors College Special Topics Requirement but may also opt, as an alternative, to receive a monetary stipend for their work.

13. NEWARK LEGAL OFFICE SEEKING PART-TIME EMPLOYEE

A legal office in Washington Park (a few blocks from campus) is seeking a part-time employee to carry out general administrative and bookkeeping functions. Students will be paid approximately $10.00 per hour. Applicants must have excellent organizational skills and should be available to work on a part-time schedule for at least 2-3 days per week. If you are interested in applying then please send your resume and cover letter to Dr. John Gunkel at jgunkel@newark.rutgers.edu. Please address your cover letter to Mr. Donald Karp, Esq., 1 Washington Park, Newark, NJ, 07102.

14. CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The Offices of Summer & Winter Sessions, Academic Technology, and Academic Scheduling has openings for spring student assistant positions. Primary responsibilities include answering phones, retrieving and responding to voice mail messages and department email accounts, as well as maintenance of Excel databases. Other key duties are greeting and assisting visitors, filing, copying, and hand-delivery of time sensitive materials campus-wide. Effective start date is January 2, 2007 (must be available for training in December). Qualified applicants must be able to work a minimum of 20 hours per week ($10/an hour) and must possess a professional and friendly attitude, as well as strong organization and communication skills. If you are interested in this opportunity please send resume, including cover letter to: Carmen Pardo, Senior Program Coordinator, Office of Summer and Winter Sessions, 249 University Ave., Room 208.

15. PERSIAN CULTURAL FOUNDATION AWARDS CEREMONY

The Persian Cultural Foundation at Rutgers University cordially invites you to attend an awards ceremony for the writers of the “best papers on Persian culture and literature.” One of the recipients is Honors College senior, Ms. Leila Faridhosseini! Please join us in congratulating her and the other recipients on Monday October 2nd from 11:30 AM to 2:00 PM in room 232 of the Paul Robeson Campus Center. A reception will follow the event. To RSVP please contact Dr. Minoo Varzegar at 201.310.1862.

16. ECONOMICS AND FINANCE SOCIETY RESUME BOOK PROJECT

The Economics and Finance Society is collecting resumes for a resume booklet that the club will be sending to various firms. Sample of firms that will be receiving this resume booklet are: Goldman Sachs, Citigroup, Lehman Brothers, JP Morgan, Deutsche Bank, Merrill Lynch, UBS, Prudential, Bear Stearns, Morgan Guarantee, Federal Reserve Bank, L'oreal, Johnson and Johnson, and others. The ultimate goal is to show these companies that Rutgers-Newark is a great source for interns and employees. To learn more about your eligibility for inclusion in this book and for details about how to submit your resume please contact Honors student, Ms. Kristina Lopez at kclopez@pegasus.rutgers.edu.

The Newsletter is published every week to provide timely information about events and opportunities of particular interest or benefit to Rutgers-Newark Honors College Students.
