2. PARTICIPATE IN THE HONORS COLLEGE ROUND TABLE

The Honors College Round Table provides an outlet for Honors College students to communicate their interests, concerns and suggestions to the Honors College staff. It also gives you with a chance to hear about the current and future directions of our program and actually influence the decision-making process. The Round Table can help us continue to improve our program and can help make your experience here the best that it can be. If you are interested in participating then please join us at this semester's meeting on Wednesday November 29th, 2006 from 2:30 – 3:50 PM (Free Period) in room 234A of the Paul Robeson Campus Center. Please RSVP [yes, no, or maybe] by replying to Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu. Please also include a list of items that you think should be discussed. I look forward to seeing you there!

3. GENERAL SPRING REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

On-line course registration has begun! Please visit http://registrar.rutgers.edu/NW/NCAS_UC_Instr.html for a full registration schedule. To access the on-line registration systems please visit <https://webreg.rutgers.edu/webreg/login>. Your RUID is the 9 digit number assigned to you when you entered the university (it appear on you ID card) and your Personal Access Code (PAC) is your 4-digit month and day of birth (for example, a December 1st birthday would be written 1201) unless of course you've changed it to some alternate number. Once you access the system you will enter in all the 5-digit index numbers that accompany each of your course selections and press "add/drop." At this point you will be prompted for any special permission numbers (SPNs) that you may have received for various courses including those offered through the Honors College. After entering these numbers you will press "add/drop" again.

4. SMITH BARNEY SPRING INTERNSHIP

Smith Barney, one of the world's leading financial institutions, is seeking interns to start during the spring 2007 semester in one of their New York Offices. Interns will get the chance to work with Portfolio Managers and their staff in developing and implementing marketing programs and conducting research into financial markets and instruments. In addition, the intern will provide input in the development of financial plans and asset allocation models for existing and prospective clients. Interns will get the invaluable chance to learn about financial markets and "Wall Street." Applicants from all majors are welcome to apply. Applicants should have working knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite (especially Excel), strong written and oral communication skills, and strong analytical skills. Applicant should be comfortable with numbers. This is a truly excellent opportunity. If you are interested in the world of business and finance then please contact Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu.

5. SEO INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

SEO is the nation's premiere summer internship program for talented students of color leading to full-time job offers. Since its inception, SEO's Career Program has placed over 4,000 Black, Hispanic/Latino, Asian, and Native American students in internships that lead to opportunities in exciting and rewarding careers in the most competitive industries worldwide. More than 80% of SEO interns receive job offers from partner firms after their internships. Students from all major are welcome to apply and can earn from $600-$1,200 a week in a mentored summer internship in Accounting, Asset Management, Corporate Law, Global Corporate Financial Leadership, Information Technology, Investment Banking, or Philanthropy. Opportunities are available throughout the tri-state area and Hong Kong. If you are of Black, Hispanic/Latino, Asian or Native American Descent and are interested in learning more about these exciting opportunities then please contact Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu.

6. NEW INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY IN EDUCATION

St. Philip's Academy, a private school located just minutes from campus, is seeking interns for its development division. Interns will work closely with the Director of Development to develop a fundraising plan tailor-made for the distinct problems that educational institutions face. Intern will gain broad exposure to a number of areas including writing of funding requests, organizing special events, grant-writing, constituent services and various other responsibilities that are handled by the Department. Any student interested in gaining the essential skills needed for work after college, especially those interested in working in the non-profit, government and/or education field, should apply for this position. For more information please e-mail Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu.

7. THREE PAID INTERNSHIPS AT VALLEY NATIONAL BANK: FALL AND SPRING OPPS!

Valley National Bank is currently accepting internship applications from enthusiastic sophomores, juniors or seniors with an interest in management, accounting, human resources and/or the banking industry in general. As an intern you'll get the rare chance to work closely with upper management of a huge bank and receive quality mentorship rich with personal attention – the four HC students who have interned there have all had an excellent experience. Valley National has assets of more than $12 billion and operates 166 branches in 109 communities located throughout NJ and NY. This internship will provide an extremely valuable experience that could help students build their resumes and acquire skills that will prove essential for their future careers. And they pay nicely! Applicants should have excellent communication skills, knowledge of MS Office Suite, and good organizational skills. If you are interested in applying then please contact Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu as soon as possible. Successful completion of this internship will fulfill the Honors College Special Topics Requirement.

8. THE SISTERHOOD AGENDA INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Sisterhood Agenda (www.sisterhoodagenda.com), an award-winning, global nonprofit organization created to uplift and aid in the self-development of women and girls of Africa descent, has an immediate opening for part-time interns to work at their Newark location. Interns would work closely with the founder and president of Sisterhood Agenda on the day-to-day operations of the organization, particularly those related to marketing, publicity and communications. Interns are expected to work approximately 10 hours p/week by arrangement. This opportunity is available for Honors College Internship credit. If you are interested in applying then please contact Seth Mann at smann@rutgers.edu.

9. HOMELAND SECURITY RESEARCH CONSORTIUM SYMPOSIUM

Rutgers is hosting the statewide NJ Universities Homeland Security Research Consortium Symposium on Nov. 20 on Busch Campus, chaired by Les Kennedy, Dean of the School of Criminal Justice, Rutgers-Newark. The meeting will bring together researchers from throughout the state for sessions on hazards preparation, port security, emergency response, emergency communications, and preparing for bioemergencies. Plans for the new Department of Homeland Security Center will be presented. The keynote speaker will be the new director of the Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness, Richard Canas.
